

LOW INCOME TAXPAYER CLINICS

Taxpayers who have appealed to the Magistrate Division because the Oregon Department of Revenue disallowed dependents may be able to get free legal help. There are two clinics in Oregon that may be able to represent low income taxpayers facing this issue. These clinics are not part of either the Oregon Tax Court or the Oregon Department of Revenue. The Court does not endorse or recommend any particular tax clinic or organization.

If you intend to contact a clinic to ask for help with your case you should do so as soon as possible. Contact information for the clinics is below.

Catholic Charities
El Programa Hispano
Low Income Taxpayer Clinic
138 NE 3rd Street, Suite 140

If you contact a clinic, a determination will be made whether you are eligible for the clinic's services and would benefit from legal representation. If the clinic agrees to represent you, it will advise you on the merits of your case, and, where appropriate, represent you in resolving your case by settlement or trial.
